

Plymouth and West Devon Record Office summary

Editions of Kernow:

Kernow Magazine: Mys Erbel 1934, Dyllans 1, Lyven 1

Kernow Magazine: Mys Me 1934, Dyllans 2, Lyven 1

Kernow Magazine: Mys Gortheren 1934, Dyllans 4, Lyven 1

Kernow Magazine: Mys Hedra 1934, Dyllans 5, Lyven 1

Correspondence, including:

Letter from Robert Morton Nance to R.V. Walling, 29 March 1934. Subjects: Morton Nance's Cornish Dictionary, discussion on the language and spellings.

Letter from R. V. Walling to Robert Morton Nance, 4 April 1934. Subjects: His difficulty in learning Cornish himself: 'I shall do much better when I have your new dictionary at hand, and I believe this will be very shortly!' Discussion on the value of Tyr ha Tavas.

Letter from Robert Morton Nance to R. V. Walling, 11 April 1934. Subjects: Differing strains of the Cornish Language, the importance of Kernow magazine and of Tyr ha Tavas.

Letter to R.V. Walling from A.D.S. Smith, 1 Ebul [?] 1934. Subjects: Discussion on Cornish and Kernow magazine.

Letter to R.V. Walling from A.D.S. Smith, 15 March 1934.

Letter to R.V. Walling from A.D.S. Smith, 23 March 1934. Subjects: Kernow magazine, the probability of a Cornish Bible ('one of my dreams'), Tyr ha Tavas.

Letter to R.V. Walling from A.D.S. Smith, 23 March 1934. Subjects: The Cornish Language and Tyr ha Tavas.

Letter to R.V. Walling from A.D.S. Smith (8 pages), 27 March 1934. Subjects: The Cornish Language and dialect.

Letter to R.V. Walling from A.D.S. Smith, 8 April 1934. Subjects: Smith's forthcoming dictionary, the Passion Poem.

Letter to R.V. Walling from Hal Wyn (R.J.W. Allin-Collins) 8 Feb 1934. Subject: The Cornish Language.

Letter to R.V. Walling from Hal Wyn (R.J.W. Allin-Collins) 7 March 1934. Subject: Three tales in Cornish and English, Own An Meppyk (The Little Son's Fear), An Bewnan's Del Yu (Actuality) and Esa'n Gour Ow-Cormel Y Wrek? (Was the Husband Praising his Wife?)

Postcards to R.V. Walling from A.D.S. Smith in both Cornish and English from April 1934

Unsigned letter [from Allin-Collins?] to A.S.D Smith, 4 April 1934. Subject: Kernow magazine, 'very hearty congratulations! "Kernow" is just splendid'.

Unsigned letter [from Allin-Collins?] 23 May 1934. Subject: Formal resignation of secretaryship of Tyr ha Tavas.

Various requests to R.V. Walling for the Cornish Dictionary from Matthew Wren, W. Brooker (8 April 1934) and Fred Hancock (Victoria, Canada) 7 May 1934.

Newspaper Clippings:

1928 – 1932. Subjects include: The Cornish language, Tyr ha Tavas and Morton Nance's Dictionary.

Articles:

5 page handwritten article on Tyr ha Tavas by Gwas Arthur in Cornish and English.

Handwritten article on 'First of Regular Services to be printed in Cornish'.

'Tyr ha Tavas: Cornish Youth Movement', list of members with addresses.

Notification of discussion: 'Is the revival of the Cornish language for everyday use possible and if so is it desirable?' 20 February 1934, Kingsway Hall, Kingsway, London.